Oberammergau River Cruises

Cruising Germany to Budapest - The Passion play in Oberammergau

Welcome to Munich, the historic capital of German Bavaria. Transfer to your hotel from the airport.* After settling in, take time to explore the Marienplatz, the city's main square overseen by the magnificent ornate facade of New Town Hall. On day 2 journey to the charming hamlet of Oberammergau where you will enjoy a performance of Passionsspiele, The Passion Play. This depiction of the trial, suffering and death of Christ is performed once every ten years. After a leisurely morning transfer to Nuremberg, Bavaria's second largest city, you will embark your ship followed by a choice of tours or leisure days. On day 4 after lunch on board your ship, enjoy a leisurely afternoon sailing the Main-Danube Canal to Regensburg where you will explore what is considered one of Europe's best preserved medieval cities. After an overnight sail to Passau you will join a guided walk along the town's narrow streets that takes you through Old Town before cruising leisurely through the captivating Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage Site to Krems in Austria and visit Göttweig, a working Benedictine abbey that owns many of the vineyards along the Danube. The following day we tour the Austrian capital of Vienna. Ride along the Ringstrasse, which replaced the city walls in the mid-19th century. See some of the city's baroque architecture, including the world-famous Opera House, St. Stephen's Cathedral and Hofburg Palace. Our final journey is to Budapest, Hungary's vibrant capital divided by the Danube River. Take a panoramic city tour through the more modern Pest side of the city. Journey along Andrassy Avenue and see the 19th- and 20th-century mansions, National Opera House, Parliament Building and Chain Bridge. Stop in Heroes' Square to learn more about Hungarian history, then cross the Danube to Buda's Castle District. On day 10 After breakfast, disembark and proceed to the airport for your return flight.* Or, extend your journey with 2 additional nights in Budapest, giving yourself more time to explore the bustling Hungarian capital.
